MY SHORT BIO

Hi everyone! My name is John. I moved to the United States from Egypt with my parents back in 2009; I’ve been living in the US for about 16 years. I live in the greater LA area with my wife and our 2 cats, Yin and Yang; I currently work full-time as a barista. For fun, I like to play video games, work out, and browse funny memes on Reddit. I also like to do photography on the side! I’m also a massive coffee fan -- if you have any cool cafes in mind, please reach out! I’d like to hear about them.
